Office of Public Instruction Strategic Directions

The Montana Office of Public Instruction provides vision, advocacy, support and leadership for schools and communities to ensure that all students meet today's challenges and tomorrow's opportunities.

The Office of Public Instruction's key strategic directions are as follows:

- Ensure that every child begins school and graduates with the knowledge and skills necessary for success in the 21st century global society by strengthening Montana education from preschool through college and the workforce.
- Improve student achievement in struggling schools by providing leadership for school turnaround efforts across the state.
- Provide current and accurate educational information to the state, school districts, and communities to promote data-driven policy decisions and assist in improving teaching and learning.
- Improve school-community relationships and student performance through the development and implementation of a comprehensive communication plan.
- Provide systematic training opportunities and focused staff development for OPI staff to support their work and ensure quality customer service.
